COMPETENT girl for general house work, must understand cooking. Apply 927 W. 3rd South. Shipments of finnan haddies came in this pound for them. There was also plenty of smoked salmon to be had at 15 cents a pound. Cured codfish stakes were in stock and sold for 15 cents a pound. Next week the commission house dealers expect a supply of crabs from the coast. The fall season will open in a day or two, and orders have already been sent for regular shipments. California lobsters were plentful yesterday and the demand for them has been steady for some time past. The retail dealers are asking 20 cents a pound for them. There was a good assortment of fresh fish in stock yesterday and trading was active.

The supply of ducks was heavy, but the demand during the past week has dropped off. The prices remain unchanged, but the dealers look for a slight reduction in a day or two. The poultry market received a limited supply of hens and chickens, but sales were light.
